Proclamation.

It is becoming and proper that a day should be set apart, when the people of our State may, Wiggleswarth et al. vs. Bradley's adm'r et al., with joyous hearts, unite in rendering thanks to God who has showered so many blessings on our land and protected us as a State and > While every part of our common country has been greatly blessed, no portion of it has received a larger share of Divine bounty than our beloved Commonwealth. With a fertile soil and a salubrious climate, we have been rarely chastened by pestilence and never by famine; with a government of our own choice, we are secured in the enjoyment of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. The past year has been crowned with plenty, and the husbandman is rejoicing in the fruits of his fields and the abundance of his store.

> For these and all other blessings we are indebted to the goodness and mercy of God, and it is meet that as a people we should bow before His throne with hearts full of thankfulness and gratitude.

Wherefore, I, C. S. MOREHEAD, do hereby set apart and appoint Thursday, the 25th day of November, 1858, to be observed as a day of public thanksgiving and prayer, and do hereby recommend and request the people of Kentucky to observe the same as such.

In Testimony Whereof, I have set my hand and caused the seal of the L. S. Commonwealth to be affixed this 5th day of November, 1858, and in the 67th year of the Commonwealth. C. S. MOREHEAD.

By the Governor: Mason Brown, Sec'y of State.
